Students may not make an audio or video recording of persons in conversation without prior consent of all parties.
25. Unauthorized Use of College Property or Facilities
26. Violation of Law and College Policy - Students may be subject to discipline per the Student Code of Conduct for violations of law that occur on College premises or at any College-sponsored activity, and for violations of law that do not occur on College Premises or at College-Sponsored Activities:
 - a. If a student is charged only with an off-campus violation of federal, state, or local laws, but not with any other violation of this Code, disciplinary action may be taken and sanctions imposed for grave misconduct which demonstrates flagrant disregard for the College community and/or which could disrupt the educational mission of the College. Such an off-campus violation must be of a nature that where there the presence of the student at a College campus is reasonably considered to be a danger to persons or property.
 - b. College disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against a student charged with violation of a law that is also a violation of this Student Code. Proceedings under this Student Code may be carried out prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings off-campus.
 - c. When a student is charged by federal, state or local authorities with a violation of law, the College will not request or agree to special consideration for that individual because of his or her status as a student. If the alleged offense is also the subject of a proceeding before the Student Conduct Committee under the Student Code, however, the College may advise off-campus authorities of the existence of the Student Code and of how such matters will be handled internally within the College community.
 - d. The College will cooperate fully with law enforcement and other agencies in enforcing the law on campus and in the conditions imposed by a judge in a court-of-law. Individual students and faculty members, acting in their personal capacities, remain free to interact with governmental representatives, as they deem appropriate.

- 27. Violation of Published College Policies/Procedures, Rules or Regulations.
- 28. Weapons and Dangerous Materials - Possession of firearms, dangerous chemicals and/or other weapons not deemed necessary for College purposes is forbidden at any College location or at any College-sponsored activity, including in the parking area for the college or the activity. This specifically revokes an individual's right to carry a licensed firearm at any College location or at any College-sponsored activity; additionally, this specifically revokes an individual's right to store a firearm in a vehicle at any College location or at any College-sponsored activity. Law enforcement personnel authorized to possess a firearm in the discharge of their duties are exempt from this policy. Authorized personnel with a specific educational purpose are exempt, but only to the specific limits outlined in their authorization. When individuals are observed with a firearm or other dangerous materials on campus, Broward College officials have the right to make reasonable inquiries to confirm that the firearm or other dangerous material is being legally carried or stored as permitted by Florida Statute and BC Policy.

THE POLICY AND THE FACULTY AND STAFF

Faculty and staff are responsible for notifying the chief student affairs officer on the campus about possible violations of the Student Code of Conduct.

IMPLEMENTATION AND OVERSIGHT

The President has the authority to establish procedures to implement this policy. The chief student affairs officer or designee on the campus/center where the infraction is alleged to have occurred, in consultation with the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management, is responsible for the implementation and oversight of policy compliance. Students wishing to grieve a decision may appeal in accordance with the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct Procedure, BC Procedure A6Hx2-5.02.

VIOLATION OF POLICY

The College retains the right to discipline students and student organizations up to dismissal from the College, for violation of this policy.

Students who are also employees of the College, who are found to have violated the Student Code of Conduct, may also be subject to disciplinary action as employees up to and including termination of their employment from the College. Any such instances will be investigated by the Vice President of Human Resources or his/her designee. Additionally, employees of the College who are also students, and who are subject to disciplinary action in their role as employees, may also be subject to disciplinary action through the Student Code of Conduct.

Breaches of the College's policies pertaining to academic dishonesty may result in academic penalties imposed by the instructor in accordance with BC Policy 6Hx2-4.19. Academic penalties may include, but are not limited to, a failing grade for a particular assignment or a failing grade for the course. Additionally, the student may be referred to the chief student affairs officer of the campus/center for violations of the Student Code of Conduct for disciplinary action.

The College maintains partnerships with external institutions including but not limited to educational institutions, libraries, and health services providers. A student who violates the rules of a College partner is also subject to BC Policy, including the College Student Code of Conduct. Additionally, a student who violates the College Student Code of Conduct may also be found to have violated the rules of a College partner.

College sponsored programs or sanctioned events may have their own rules and disciplinary procedures that would be applicable in addition to the Student Code of Conduct, such as the Institute of Public Safety, Aviation Institute, etc.

DEFINITIONS

Abusive Conduct - physical abuse, verbal abuse, threats, intimidation, harassment, coercion and/or other conduct which threatens or endangers the physical or emotional health or safety of any person

Bribery - offering, soliciting, receiving, or giving money or any item or service to a College employee for the purpose of attempting to obtain assistance, priority consideration, or any benefit that would not have otherwise been provided

Bullying – behavior that inflicts physical or psychological abuse on one or more members of the College community. Such behavior may occur in-person or via electronic communication.

Cheating - includes but is not limited to, copying homework assignments from another student; working together with another individual on a take-home test or homework when specifically prohibited from doing so by the instructor; and looking at text, notes or another student’s paper during an examination when not permitted to do so. Cheating also includes the giving of work or information to another student to be copied and/or used as his or her own. Including, but not limited to, giving a student answers to exam questions either when the exam is being given or after having taken an exam; informing another student of specific questions that appear or have appeared on an exam in the same academic term; giving or selling a term paper, report, project or other restricted written materials to another student.

Code of Conduct - a set of conventional principles and expectations that are considered binding on any student at the College.
