Title: Transfer of Private Contributions to the Broward Community College Foundation, Inc.	Number: 6Hx2-6.30
Legal Authority: Fla. Statutes 240.363	Page: 1 of 1

Private contributions made to Broward Community College may be transferred by check by the Comptroller of the College to the Broward Community College Foundation for administration. The Broward Community College Foundation is the primary fundraising direct support organization for scholarship and program support. As such, funds used for these purposes should be administered through the Foundation. After receipt by the College Comptroller, private contributions should be transferred to the Foundation for their intended use. If the contribution is undesignated, the Foundation Board shall decide its ultimate use in support of the College mission.

History: Issued as Policy 6.62 on August 22, 1989; reissued on March 19, 1991; revised and re-numbered on June 18, 1997
