Title: Complaint Process for Non-Instructional Issues	Number: A6Hx2-5.23
Policy Number: 6H2-5.23	Page: 1 of 4

The College expects and requires that front-line staff and/or administrators attempt to meaningfully resolve complaints prior to reaching the Executive Leadership level (President, Provost, Senior Vice Presidents, Vice Presidents, and Campus Presidents). In the same regard, students are expected to follow the chain of command within the complaint process prior to elevating a concern to the senior executive level of the College.

This procedure should be used when a student or prospective student has a concern about her/his education at the College. (Students who have a concern about a final course grade may appeal in accordance with College Policy and Procedure 6Hx2-4.19 – Grades and Grade Appeal). The objective of the procedure is to provide a resolution process for students to use to resolve concerns as quickly and efficiently as possible. This complaint process is for students and prospective students, and only students or prospective students can participate in the College’s complaint process; however, nothing within this process precludes a student from seeking counsel from an adviser of their choice, which may be an attorney.

The student or prospective student brings the concern to an appropriate staff or faculty member using the steps in the resolution process below. If the student is uncomfortable with approaching the college employee directly, she/he may select an advocate inclusive of the campus ombudsman, a counselor or adviser, or other staff member. The staff member and administrators will attempt to work with the student and any other persons who are involved to respond to the problem within ten (10) business days. If the complaint is not answered satisfactorily at any step in the process, the student should progressively elevate their concerns through the process and if not resolved should can make a written complaint with the appropriate Vice President or Campus President as indicated below.

After exhausting all institutional complaint processes and students and/or prospective students feel their issue(s) are unresolved, a complaint may be filled with the Florida Colleges Division of the Florida Department of Education and/or the Southern Association for Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges. For more information on how to how to contact the Florida Department of Education regarding a Complaint, students may access information at the following website: <http://www.fldoe.org/cc/complaint.asp>.

Complaints related to actions that violate Federal law such as discrimination, ADA, FERPA should be reported to the appropriate College official using the resolution process above. Additionally, students may file a complaint with the appropriate Federal agency that has jurisdiction over these areas. The United States Department of Education Office of Civil Rights handles complaints related to discrimination and ADA. Complaints related to privacy of records in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), students may also contact the United States Department of Education Family Policy Compliance Office and file a complaint in accordance with the rules of that agency.

PROCEDURES SPECIFIC TO ONLINE STUDENTS

Students enrolled in a fully online program who desire to file a complaint not related to their final grade in a course should follow this Complaint Process for Non-instructional Issues (BC Procedure 5.23). After exhausting all institutional complaint processes, Florida residents may file a complaint with the Florida Department of Education-Division of Colleges, and/or with Broward College’s regional accrediting agency, The Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Students residing in states other than Florida may file a complaint with the regulatory agency in the state where they are receiving the online instruction, and/or the Commission on Colleges.

Most complaint processes external to Broward College require that the student: 1) document the steps taken to exhaust the institution’s grievance process; 2) describe the action taken by the institution to date in response to

PROCEDURES FOR RECORDS RETENTION

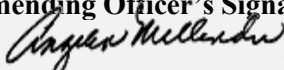

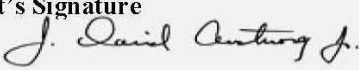

The College will retain records for written complaints received at the following levels:

- President of the College or designated senior executive administrator
- College Provosts, Campus Presidents and Vice Presidents
- Human Resource Officials
- Outside agencies: Federal, State, County, etc.

As established in Florida Statutes Chapter 119 and 257, and in the Florida Administrative Code Rule 1B-24 and 1B-26, the College follows the General Records Schedules GS1-SL for state and local government agencies relative to the retention of the records related to student/consumer written complaints escalated to the above level. Records related to the complaint along with the action taken with the name of the person who resolved the complaint will be retained with the College officials above who are ultimately responsible for response to the complaint and retention of the documentation of the complaint for designated period of time.

Complaints related to harassment, discrimination or any other complaints governed by Federal regulations that govern complaints against employees shall be maintained in accordance with the GS1-SL.
