Study abroad with Dr. Serrano and Dr. Harvey to earn academic credit while exploring the U.S. Pacific Northwest and Canada!

- See temperate rainforest, snow covered mountains, the Pacific coast, and much more!
- Explore the cities of Victoria (capital of British Columbia), Naniamo, Uclet and Seattle!
- Experience First Nations/Native American sites museums and culture!
- Zipline the temperate forest, go on a grizzly bear boat tour of Canadian fiords, watch orcas from Lime Kiln State Park, hike the most glaciated park in the lower 48 (North Cascades National Park).

TRAVEL DATES: July 2016 (Approximately 19 days—exact dates TBA)
APPLICATION DEADLINE: October 7, 2015
COURSE OPTIONS: PCB 3034C - Advanced Biological Field Techniques, BSC 2910 - Independent Research, or BSC4911 –Independent Research
PROGRAM COST: $3,000 (includes flights and ground transportation, lodging, some meals, admissions and entry fees, international health insurance)

For more information on applying to the program, please contact Dr. Serrano at dserranono@broward.edu. For more information on study abroad scholarships, please contact the Greene International Education Institute at abroad@broward.edu.