

Visual & Performing Arts/Curriculum Map

Art Program 1003

Students should see Professors Diehl, Foster, Johnson, Kaufman or Leisek each semester in Building 3 for further advisement. Peer academic advisement is also available. Consult with the V&PA Office for further details.

semester one		ART1201c 2D Design (3 cr)	ART1300c Drawing I (3 cr)	ENC1101 (3 cr)	SPC1024 or SPC1608 (3 cr)	gordon rule math course (3 cr) semester two		ART1203c 3D Design (3 cr)	ART 2330c Figure Drawing (3 cr)	gordon rule math course (3 cr)	ENC1102 or ENC2210 (3 cr)	HLP1081 or PEM1131 or PEM1141 (2 cr) semester three	Students may take either art history, but both are required for program completion	ARH2050 or ARH2051 (3 cr)	art elective (3 cr)	art elective (3 cr)	social /behavioral science course (3 cr)	historical, political & global perspectives course (3 cr) semester four	ARH courses count toward the general education component of a student's curriculum	ARH2050 or ARH2051 (3 cr)	art elective (3 cr)	art elective (3 cr)	biological science course (3 cr)	physical science course (3 cr)

art electives ART1600C Computer Art; ART2205C Color Theory; ART2400C Beginning Printmaking; ART2500C Painting I; ART2701C Sculpture; ART2750C Ceramics I; PGY2401C Photography; GRA2142 Web Design

Note: Program majors should not take ARH2000 Art Appreciation. The above sequence is suggested. Courses without prerequisites can be taken out of sequence. Students should consult the Broward College Catalog for full details of the AA degree program general education course requirements. *Indicates that one of either biological or physical science must have a one credit lab attached to it.