Bob Starkman enters his seventh season as head men's basketball coach for Broward Community College and 11th overall at BCC, having served four years as the women's head basketball coach. Throughout his tenure as the men's coach, BCC won two Southern Conference championships (2003, 2004), appeared in two Florida Community College Athletic Association (FCCAA) State Tournaments and received three national rankings in the final NJCAA polls. The 2006-07 Seahawks finished 10th in the FCCAA with a 20-11 record. Tony Dennison was named third team NJCAA all-American after finishing second in scoring and 27th in field goal percentage. Dennison was also selected first team all-FCCAA and first team all-Southern conference. Three other Seahawks were named all-conference, including Miklos Szabo (first team), Rocky Pierre (second team) and Shamair Williams (second team).

In his six years leading the men's program, Starkman has amassed an overall record of 116-62. In addition, Starkman has coached five NJCAA all-Americans and several of his former athletes are playing professionally in the United States and abroad. Starkman was recognized as the Southern Conference Coach of the Year in 2003 and 2004. During the 2005 season, Starkman was selected to coach in the first FCCAA All-Star game.

Coach Starkman understands the importance of recruiting and has strong ties to New York City basketball where he served as a coach for the Brooklyn Beasts, an international prep all-star squad, as part of the Eastern Regional Basketball Club. In addition to his coaching duties, Starkman is completing his career as a special agent for the U.S. Customs, Department of Homeland Security with more than 28 years of law enforcement experience. He retires in January. He also spends numerous hours volunteering with youth sports.

Starkman played college basketball as a forward at Palomar (Cal.) Junior College (1974) and York (N.Y.) College (1975-1978). He is married to the former Jill Thompson. They are the parents of daughter Alison (22) and sons Bobby (18) and Danny (15).
