

Scott Hermansen

Scott Hermansen begins his second season as head coach of the Broward Community College women's basketball team. Last year, Hermansen directed the Lady Seahawks to a 15-13 overall record and finished tied for second place in the Southern Conference with a 9-3 mark.

Under his guidance, Lesley Gadson became first-team all-FCCAA and all-Southern Conference. Arlande Cherizol was also selected first team all-conference and Ivette Brau, Jenny Eriksson and Chrisy Mirand were named honorable mention.

Hermansen also served as an assistant coach for BCC under Jennifer Diaz during the 2004-05 year. That season was an historic one for the program with the Lady Seahawks compiling a 19-11 record and winning the Southern Conference Championship for the first time.

Before coming to BCC as an assistant, Hermansen served two years as athletic director and head coach of the boys' basketball team at Parkway Academy Charter High School from 2003 to 2004. Hermansen's responsibilities in his first year as athletic director included overseeing the start of competition for the 12-sport athletic program.

From 1995 to 2002, Hermansen was head coach of the girls' basketball team at Chaminade-Madonna College Preparatory. Hermansen built the program from 13 players in his first year into three competitive teams by the end of his third season. The 1997-98 varsity team posted a 17-10 record after going 5-20 the year before and reached the district championship game. He received recognition for those accomplishments by being named the Sun-Sentinel Broward County Coach of the Year for 1A-3A schools. A year later, the program enjoyed its greatest success under the Hermansen era by finishing 21-7 and winning the district championship. Hermansen was selected to coach the Broward South All-Stars in 1997 and 1998. His last team won the all-star game for the first time.

Hermansen is married to the former P.J. Grasso. They are parents of daughters Suzanne (36), Diana (32) and Natasha (29). They have two grandchildren, Lindsay (7) and Zach (4).
