Student Organizations

Student organizations, clubs and programs contribute to the total experience of the college student. Operating under the supervision of the Dean of Student Affairs and the Director of Student Life/Development, student organizations encourage cultural, social, and intellectual development. Students are encouraged to participate. Detailed information on current campus organizations can be obtained in the Student Handbook, which can be visited online at <http://www.broward.edu>.

Student Government

SGA operates on all campuses and the Downtown Center. Students are encouraged to participate and represent student interests. For more information, contact your respective Student Life Office.

Tigertail Lake Center

The Tigertail Lake Center provides water sports programs, a conference facility, the ropes challenge course, recreational trips, intramural beach volleyball, and credit and non-credit water sports classes. Water sports training and recreational opportunities are offered in sailing, windsurfing, snorkeling, and kayaking to all BCC students and staff. Monthly water sport trips to the Florida Keys are available to all students. Most activities at the Tigertail Lake Center are available without charge to BCC student and student organizations. The Tigertail Lake Center is located on the entrance drive to Outdoor World in Dania Beach. Please call the Water Sports Office at

(954) 201-4500 for information and a brochure, or visit Tigertail Lake online at <http://www.broward.edu/>.

Intercollegiate Athletics

The purpose of the BCC intercollegiate athletic program is to provide an opportunity for students to learn the values of self-discipline, sportsmanship, team building, and academic excellence. BCC Intercollegiate athletics fosters the development of physical, intellectual, emotional and social skills in student athletes and encourages athletes to carry these lessons onto the playing field, into the classroom, and in the community. BCC currently fields teams in men's and women's basketball, men's baseball, women's softball, women's volleyball and women's tennis. Scholarships are offered to some student athletes. For more information, call the Athletics Office at (954) 201-6997 or visit Athletics online at <http://www.broward.edu/>.

Student Publications

The Observer

Broward Community College encourages and supports a free and responsible student press. The Observer, the College's biweekly newspaper, is a combined product of students from the journalism program at North, A. Hugh Adams Central and Judson A. Samuels South campuses. Student reporters engage in responsible, objective practices of writing, while those interested in photojournalism, design, graphics, desktop publishing and advertising can apply their abilities in preparing camera-ready pages for print. The Observer is a highly touted college wide student publication, having received All-American ratings and two national Pacemaker ratings from a national critiquing service, in addition to numerous state awards since its inception in 1986. Many student editors receive scholarships to produce The Observer. For more information, contact the advisor, at (954) 201-8035. Students may visit the Observer online at www.broward.edu/.

P'an Ku

P'an Ku is the BCC Student Literary/Arts Magazine. Published twice yearly, P'an Ku features the creative efforts of students throughout the College in the literary and visual arts. Poetry, short stories, art, and photography are sought for publication. Watch for the announcements of submission deadlines during the year. P'an Ku has won both regional and national awards. Though based at Judson A. Samuels South Campus, P'an Ku encourages students from all campuses to participate. The magazine is looking for writers, artists, photographers, and anyone else who would like to be part of the staff. No prior experience is needed, only enthusiasm! For more information, call Dr. Patrick Ellingham, Faculty Advisor, at (954) 201-8858 or the editorial office at (954) 201-8044. You can also visit the P'an Ku website at www.broward.edu/.
