GENERAL STATEMENT
Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 protects people from discrimination based on sex in education programs or activities which receive Federal financial assistance. Title IX states that: No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

Broward College (“College”) is committed to creating a safe educational environment for all students, faculty, and staff. Sexual misconduct of any kind, including, but not limited to, sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, sexual harassment, or retaliation for reporting such offenses, will not be tolerated. Students are afforded protections from sexual misconduct, and any hostile education environment resulting from such misconduct, regardless of the sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity of either the alleged perpetrator or complainant, including when both are members of the same sex.

The College fully supports and complies with all state and federal laws related to sexual misconduct and will report allegations of sexual misconduct to appropriate law enforcement agencies in accordance with applicable law and subject to confidentiality provisions outlined in the procedure accompanying this policy and in applicable state and federal law.

VIOLATION OF POLICY
The College will take prompt and appropriate action to end any conduct that interferes or limits a student’s ability to participate in or benefit from the College’s programs. All complaints and investigations of sexual misconduct will be kept confidential as possible and to the extent allowed by law.

DEFINITIONS
Consent – an affirmative indication of a voluntary agreement to engage in the particular sexual act or conduct in question. Consent cannot be obtained through coercion, force, threat, or intimidation. Consent cannot be given by someone who is not able to effectively communicate or to understand the nature of the conduct being engaged in, or is otherwise incapacitated as a result of having consumed drugs or alcohol, or for any other reason. Silence or absence of resistance on the part of an individual does not imply consent. Past consent does not imply future consent. Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply consent to engage in sexual activity with another. Consent can be withdrawn at any time, even during sexual interactions. Consent to one form of sexual activity does not imply consent to other forms of sexual activity, or as further defined in Florida Statutes.
