GENERAL STATEMENT

The College shall seek and maintain institutional accreditation which encompasses both local campuses and off-site instructional locations (inclusive of international centers) offering Broward College courses, programs, and services.

The College shall seek and maintain accreditation for relevant specialized professional bodies as determined by the President in conjunction with appropriate faculty and staff.

Accreditation reports for both institutional and specialized professional bodies shall be sent to the Board of Trustees for review, and appropriate College publications shall cite the College's accreditation status in accordance with the specifications of the accrediting body's requirements.

Institutional Accreditation: The President is expected to be conversant with the institutional accrediting body's policies, procedures, and guidelines. Furthermore, he/she is expected to involve personnel from all segments of the institution in the reaffirmation and the fifth-year interim process to ensure the development of a report that assesses all aspects of the College, in judging compliance with the accrediting body's requirements.

Institutional Accreditation Liaison: The President shall appoint an institutional accreditation liaison.
