

Other College Policies

Total Attempts Per Course

A student may attempt a course only three times, including the original grade, repeat grades, audits, and withdrawals.

In order to attempt a course for the fourth time, a you must successfully petition the Academic Standards Committee by demonstrating extenuating circumstances. The third time you attempt a course, a grade (A-F) will be awarded. All grades from the third and subsequent attempts will be calculated in your grade-point average.