CONDITIONS OF SCHOLARSHIP

In order to maintain his or her eligibility to receive scholarship funds, each scholarship recipient must, at the end of each academic year, submit to the ATCA Scholarship Fund, Inc., a verified report from the educational institution attended, stating the courses taken and completed and the grades received. Each scholarship recipient must also provide the ATCA Scholarship Fund, Inc., a verified final report upon completion of the entire course of study.

Each scholarship recipient must also inform ATCA whether he or she is related to any member or officer of ATCA.

DISBURSAL OF SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

Scholarship funds will be disbursed to the award recipient as reimbursement for actual, legitimate scholastic expenses whenever the student provides the ATCA Scholarship Fund, Inc. satisfactory evidence of the expenditure (i.e., tuition payment receipts, bookstore receipts indicating purchases of textbooks, or receipts for payment of dormitory room and board charges in the case of half- to full-time students only). The award recipient may also have the educational institution submit bills for tuition, dormitory room and board (half to full-time students only), or other scholastic charges directly to the ATCA Scholarship Fund, Inc. for payment to the educational institution. Scholarships are not renewable and the funds must be used within four years of the date of the award. Scholarship funds are disbursed only up to the amount of the initial award. Award winners seeking additional funds must submit a new application and attachments for consideration on a competitive basis.

Income from the fund(s) that is not awarded as a scholarship in any category in a given year may be returned to the appropriate account and accumulated as additional capital or paid out in scholarships in any subsequent year.
