The bookstores offer a complete line of textbooks, both new and used, and a large selection of trade and reference books. We also have an extensive assortment of art supplies, gift items, engineering supplies, college rings, license plate holders, mugs, shirts, hats, health science uniforms, health science supplies, dictionaries, backpacks, computer supplies, Microsoft and Adobe software, candies and snacks, soft drinks, pennants, calculators, digital recorders, PDAs, jump drives, MP3 players, printers, UPS protectors, zip drives, pens and pencils, notebooks, highlighters, diploma and picture frames, decals, newspapers, 3-ring binders, index cards, test supplies and a lot more. Gift certificates are available in the bookstores in various denominations. E-book readers, eTextbooks, laptops and tablets are now available! Services also include special orders for books and software not normally carried as basic stock, and buyback of used college books. Prices are established according to the national standard typically found at other colleges and universities.

The District Bookstores look forward to serving you. Please stop by and/or contact the bookstore managers if we can be of further assistance.
Broward College bookstores have a new program where you can rent your textbooks in store and online.

The Broward College bookstores are owned and operated by the College and function as a service to the students, faculty, administration and staff. The bookstores offer a complete line of textbooks, both new and used, and a large selection of trade and reference books.

Refund Policy:

✓ Your original cash register receipt is required.
✓ Refunds can only be accepted at the campus where the original purchase occurred.

✓ What types of identifications are required for all Buy Back transactions?
✓ Broward College student ID card
✓ A fee schedule
✓ Grade report or transcript that contains the course information which corresponds to the textbook(s) being sold back to the bookstore for all Buy Back transactions
✓ Buy Back closes 30 minutes prior to the store closing.

The time limit for full refund is two weeks before and after the first day of classes for Terms I and II, and one week before and after the first day of classes for Term III and all mini-sessions. The actual dates are posted in the bookstores, on your receipts and on the web site. The posted refund dates apply for all purchases.

www.broward.edu/bookstore