Course Description:
This comprehensive 8 hour workshop is designed to enhance the skills of the law enforcement officer in writing accurate and complete police reports. Emphasis is placed on the proper techniques for writing effective police reports and avoiding common pitfalls that can undermine the officer’s ability to refer to the report during court testimony. The participant will receive extensive training in organizing the report content, writing the report, and evaluating the report for accuracy and completeness. The workshop will include both classroom discussion and a report writing exercise to achieve the course objectives.

Students having laptops containing Microsoft Word software are preferred, but not mandatory.
