How the Return of Federal Aid Calculation Works - PG. 1 of 3

The payment period is defined as the term you are enrolled. Example—
Fall 2017
8/20/2018—12/11/2018

This is the sum of all the Federal Aid you received (or could have received) during the term or payment period.

OFFICIAL WITHDRAWALS

UNOFFICIAL WITHDRAWALS

You unofficially withdrew from Broward College, the calculation represents the midpoint (50%) of the term or payment period and potentially the amount of Federal Aid you earned.

This box represents the percentage of the total aid (Box G) that you might be able to keep.

There are many components to Post-Withdrawal Disbursements (PWD). Please refer to “Post Withdrawal Disbursements” on the Financial Aid webpage —http://www.broward.edu/
This box represents the amount of Federal Aid that you and/or the college may be required to return as a result of your withdrawal.

This calculation is based upon the total amount of Federal Aid that was disbursed minus the amount earned (Box I).

The college is required to return any Federal Aid determined "unearned" in a specific order, as displayed in Step 6, beginning with Federal Loans.

This box represents the amount of Federal Aid that the school is required to return.

This amount is determined by taking the lesser of the amount displayed in Box K and Box N.

The college is required to return any Federal Aid determined "unearned" in a specific order, as displayed in Step 6, beginning with Federal Loans.

This box represents the amount of Federal Aid that you are required to return.
Any grant repayment that you become responsible to repay is considered an overpayment of Federal Aid. You will be responsible to repay the amount determined to be overpaid to the institution within 45 days. If the payment is not made within 45 days, you may be referred to a collection agency.

This box represents the difference between the total amount of Federal Loans disbursed during the term or payment period and the amount of Federal Loans returned as a result of Step 6.

Loans are repaid in accordance with the terms of the promissory note.

The total amount of Federal Grants that you were eligible for during the term or payment period minus 50% of the grants disbursed (or could have been disbursed) determines the total amount of Federal Grants that you must return.
