Notes:

¹ Denotes the Composite or Total Score for the exam unless otherwise noted. This is only used for international student admission decisions and not placement into the EAP course

² Refer to the EAP Placement Test Table for specific scores and courses placement levels. Visit www.broward.edu/placement for more information.

³ If scores are below college ready on the PERT, student will be required to take the LOEP.

⁴ If additional language training is required, we will change the I-20 from an associate's degree to the Language Training program.

⁵ Students whose native language is other than English and who did not complete two (2) years of regular high school English in the United States or in a American high school abroad accredited in the United States.

⁶ No additional placement testing required if this area is satisfied with the appropriate subtest score.

⁷ TOEFL ITP scores may be received from the institution who delivered the exam. TOEFL will not send official scores for the ITP. Scores must be sent from the delivering institution to Broward College via mail or email.

* Official test scores must be received by the college for all ELL exams. Verified unofficial test scores may be used for placement and override purposes; however, official scores must still be received.

 International ELL Admission scores used for admission purposes are valid for 2 years. ELL test scores used for EAP course placement are only valid for 1 year.
