

General Education Outcomes & Assessment

A Conversation with

Josh Kimber

&

Tai Houser

Quick Update

- ◆ State Rule: 6A-14.0303
- ◆ A.S. & A.A.S. Must take one CORE course from each General Education Area (Ex. Communication, Humanities, etc.).
- ◆ Applies to students with a Catalogue Year of Fall 2022 or later.
- ◆ Degree audits are currently being updated to reflect this change.

Tools

01

RUBRICS

2016-2017 General Education Rubric

Competency: Critical Thinking

Political thinking is the ability to read and analyze material presented in a variety of ways and to evaluate the evidence and arguments presented.

The following rubric will be used to assess the student's ability to read and analyze political thinking in a variety of ways and to evaluate the evidence and arguments presented. As a faculty member, you will use this rubric to assess the student's ability to read and analyze political thinking in a variety of ways and to evaluate the evidence and arguments presented.

Below are the four categories of learning outcomes that are assessed by this rubric.

Political Thinking	Reading and Analyzing	Evaluating	Writing
Political thinking is the ability to read and analyze material presented in a variety of ways and to evaluate the evidence and arguments presented.	Read and analyze material presented in a variety of ways and to evaluate the evidence and arguments presented.	Evaluate the evidence and arguments presented in a variety of ways and to evaluate the evidence and arguments presented.	Write and analyze material presented in a variety of ways and to evaluate the evidence and arguments presented.

02

DATA

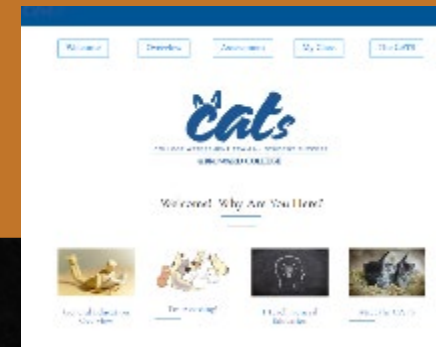

The screenshot shows the Broward College logo at the top left. Below it is a colorful illustration of a graduation cap, a book, and a laptop. To the right of the illustration, the text reads: "General Education Assessment Report" and "Submitted By: [Name] Planning and Outreach, [Name] and [Name]".

03

(NEW!) WEBSITE:

<https://sites.broward.edu/genedassessment/>

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Broward College website. At the top, there are navigation tabs for "Home", "About Us", "Academics", "Admissions", and "Contact Us". The main heading is "cats" in a stylized font, with the tagline "THE ONLY WEIRDO FRIENDLY COLLEGE IN BROWARD COUNTY". Below this, there is a section titled "We're cool. Why Are You Here?" with four small images representing different aspects of the college experience.

Mapping

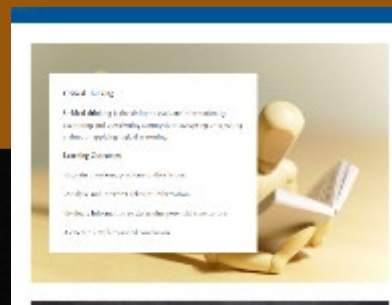

01

COURSE
OUTLINE &
ALIGNMENT
MAP

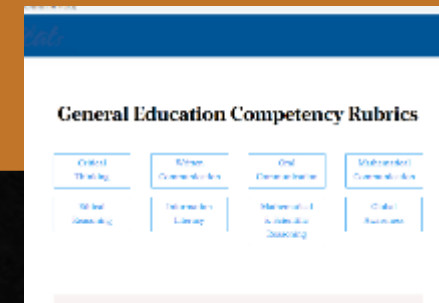

02

COMPETENCIES
&
LEARNING OUTCOMES

03

RUBRICS

The Writing Data

01

CATS

GOAL: 75%

ACTUAL: 2020-21
75% & 82%

02

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

GOAL: 75%

ACTUAL: 2020-21
69%

03

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Closing the Loop

01

ENHANCE THE ASSIGNMENT

All General Education Options Critical Thinking, and two additional competencies indicated in the course outline

Distinguish an Analogy or Analogy
Add a call to action or a persuasive appeal to a passage or text presented within a course class.

Add a Call to Action
After learning a concept, explain how it is being applied in the real world. Encourage your students to write a persuasive appeal to a specific audience.

Enhance
How can you take the concept you are studying to the next level?

02

ENHANCE THE CLASS

Writing, ENHANCED

Students will be able to write a persuasive appeal to a specific audience within a course class.

GENERAL EDUCATION	CRITICAL THINKING
GENERAL EDUCATION Students will be able to write a persuasive appeal to a specific audience within a course class.	CRITICAL THINKING Students will be able to write a persuasive appeal to a specific audience within a course class.
GENERAL EDUCATION Students will be able to write a persuasive appeal to a specific audience within a course class.	CRITICAL THINKING Students will be able to write a persuasive appeal to a specific audience within a course class.
GENERAL EDUCATION Students will be able to write a persuasive appeal to a specific audience within a course class.	CRITICAL THINKING Students will be able to write a persuasive appeal to a specific audience within a course class.

03

ENHANCE THE LEARNING

General Education 2021 – 2026

Bowdoin College values and supports a well-rounded learning experience that empowers students to thrive personally and professionally in diverse communities. Through our general education framework, students acquire and apply knowledge across a wide range of disciplines, thereby expanding their capacity to appreciate, think critically about, and respond to a variety of perspectives and situations.

Bowdoin College has established its competencies that are addressed in General Education courses. Each competency has expected learning outcomes. Upon completion of their General Education requirements, it is expected that students will be able to demonstrate:

- Critical Thinking
- Effective Communication

General Discussion & Questions

01

CATS

COLLEGE ASSESSMENT TEAM for STUDENT SUCCESS

 BROWARD COLLEGE

02

INTERNATIONAL
EDUCATION

03

JOSH KIMBER:

JKIMBER@BROWARD.EDU

TAI HOUSER:

THOUSER@BROWARD.EDU

RESOURCES

General Education 2021 – 2026

Broward College values and supports a well-rounded learning experience that empowers students to thrive personally and professionally in diverse communities. Through our general education framework, students acquire and apply knowledge across a wide range of disciplines, thereby expanding their capacity to appreciate, think critically about, and respond to a variety of perspectives and situations.

Broward College has established six competencies that are addressed in General Education courses. Each competency has expected learning outcomes. Upon completion of their General Education requirements, it is expected that students will be able to demonstrate:

Critical Thinking

Effective Communication

General Education Competencies

Critical Thinking

Effective Communication

Ethical Reasoning

Information Literacy

Mathematical and Scientific Reasoning

Global Awareness

General Education Competencies On Gen Ed Course Outlines

View Course: PHI 2010 - Intro To Phil

07:00 PM
05/17/2022
Page 2 of 13

Course Tags
Course Tags :: A.A. Elective
Course Tags :: General Education Eligible
Course Tags :: Grants Writing Credit
Course Tags :: International/Intercultural Credit

CIP Code
Educational Taxonomy Codes 11315 - Letters
Section Overrides Allowed No
Location Not Required No

Course Components

Instructional Format	Required Format	Allowed Delivery Modes	Contact Hours	Controls Grading	Default Instructor Load Percentage
Lecture	Yes	Blended In-Person Online	48	Yes	0.00

Course Materials

Course Material	Required	Author	Edition	Publisher	Copyright Date	ISBN	Retail Price	Currency
-----------------	----------	--------	---------	-----------	----------------	------	--------------	----------

Description This course is an introduction to the nature of philosophy, philosophical thinking, major intellectual movements in the history of philosophy, and specific problems in philosophy. The relationship between philosophy, society, religion, and culture will be examined. PHI2010 is a writing credit course. Students must earn a minimum grade of C to meet the requirements of the Gordon Rule for writing. PHI2010 meets the International/Intercultural competency requirement.

Learning Outcome
Critical Thinking
Ethical Reasoning
Global Awareness

Competencies

Auto Generate Course Section Numbers Yes

Section Defaults

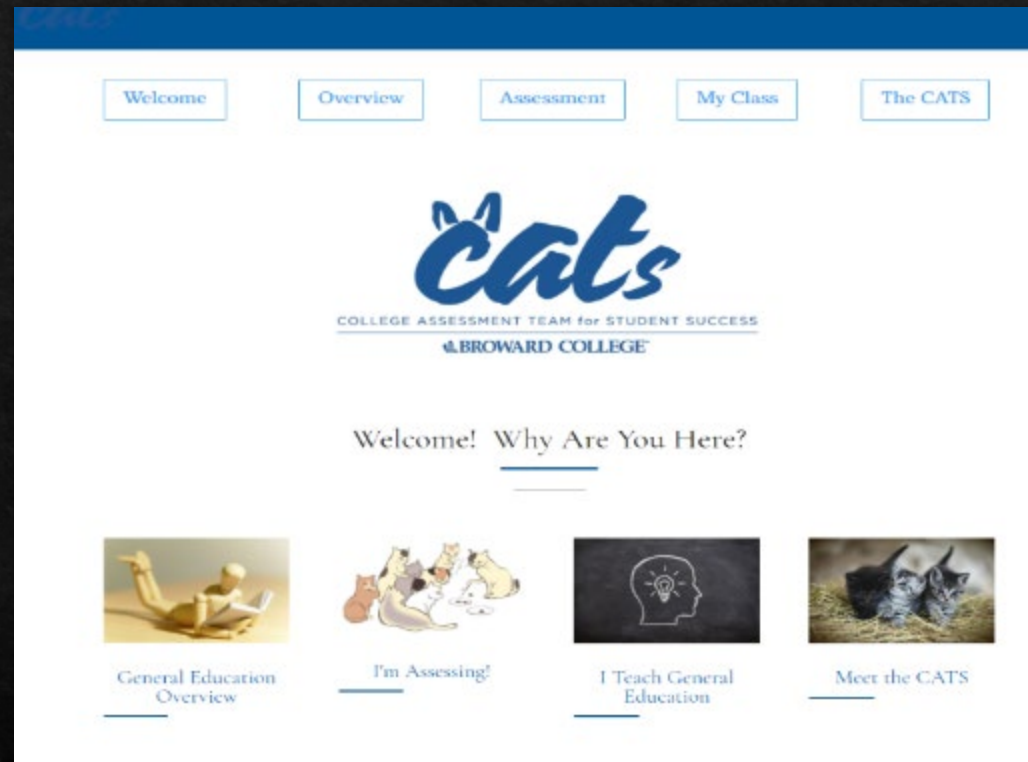

Section Defaults

Unlimited Capacity No
Default Section Capacity 40
Default Projected Enrollment 40
Default Wait List Capacity 10
Manually Manage Waitlist Promotion No
Public Notes This course does not have any required pre-requisites or co-requisites.

General Education Competency Alignment for Assessment (August 2021 – 2026)

Competency/Area	Communication	Humanities	Social / Behavioral Sciences	Science	Mathematics	NEW Additional Gen Ed Options
Critical Thinking	😊	😊	😊	😊	😊	😊
Effective Communication	😊				😊	Select any two additional competencies
Ethical Reasoning		😊		😊
Global Awareness		😊	😊
Information Literacy	😊		😊
Mathematical and Scientific Reasoning				😊	😊

Visit the CATS Site!

<https://sites.broward.edu/genedassessment/>

Visit the Catalogue

2021 – 2026

General Education at Broward College

General Education Statement, Competencies, and Learning Outcomes

General Education Statement:

Broward College values and supports a well-rounded learning experience that empowers students to thrive personally and professionally in diverse communities. Through our general education framework, students acquire and apply knowledge across a wide range of disciplines, thereby expanding their capacity to appreciate, think critically about, and respond to a variety of perspectives and situations.

Broward College has established six competencies that form the foundation of the learning outcomes in our courses. Upon successful completion of the General Education program, students will be able to demonstrate:

- Critical Thinking
- Effective Communication
- Ethical Reasoning
- Information Literacy
- Mathematical and Scientific Reasoning
- Global Awareness

<https://students.broward.edu/resources/college-catalog/docs/2021-2022-bc-college-catalog/04-programs-of-study.pdf>