CORE COURSES

COURSE TYPE	LEVEL	COURSE NAME	COURSE DESCRIPTION
CORE COURSES	1	Pre-Beginner	This course is designed for students who have no previous experience with the English language. It introduces basic vocabulary and simple grammar structures including the verb to-be, the simple present, the simple past, the present continuous, and the future.
	2	Beginner	Designed for beginner students who have had some previous experience with the English language. It includes important vocabulary for everyday communication, such as personal information, jobs, daily routines, etc. It also presents basic grammar structures with strong emphasis on the use of the past tense, prepositions of time, adverbs of frequency, the future with “going to”, comparatives and superlatives, and an overview of the present perfect.
	3	Pre-Intermediate	Designed for students who have a limited command of the English language and who wish to communicate more effectively. It includes vocabulary for describing people and places, clothes, animals, health and lifestyles, and vacations, among others. It provides a comprehensive review and consolidation of the simple present, present continuous, simple past, the future, and the present perfect. It introduces the use infinitives vs. ing-forms, the use of modals, the first and second conditionals, and an overview of the past perfect.
	4	Intermediate	Designed for students who have a moderate command of the English language and who are ready for more complex grammatical structures. It includes more advanced vocabulary for enhanced communication, such as shopping, travel, transportation, compound nouns, etc. In this level, the student will review all previously learned verb tenses and will learn the use of the passive form, the third conditional, reported speech, relative clauses, and phrasal verbs, among others.

COURSE TYPE	LEVEL	COURSE NAME	COURSE DESCRIPTION
CORE COURSES	5	High-Intermediate	Designed to advance students from an intermediate to an advanced command of the English language by consolidating previous knowledge and focusing on improving accuracy and fluency. It includes more sophisticated vocabulary which covers a variety of topics.
	6	Advanced IEP	This course is designed for the advanced student of English who needs to improve accuracy and fluency. In this level, students will have an opportunity to practice a range of complex grammar structures by exploring challenging topics that stimulate communication.
	7	Advanced Academic Skills	This course focuses on providing advanced students with the academic skills necessary to be successful in a program of higher education. It focuses on advanced conversation, pronunciation, listening and reading comprehension, essay writing, and grammar practice.
	8	Advanced Business Skills	This is a high-level course for international business executives, professionals and business administration students who are or will be conducting business in the global market. It is designed to aid advanced learners of English in perfecting communicative and practical business skills for the workplace. Emphasis is made on business presentations, communication techniques, strategies and skills needed to succeed.

SUPPLEMENTAL COURSES

COURSE TYPE	LEVEL	COURSE NAME	COURSE DESCRIPTION
SUPPLEMENTAL COURSES	1-6	Conversation and Accent Reduction	Provides further speaking, listening comprehension, and pronunciation practice with some background in English, mainly interested in enhancing oral communication. The student will develop effective speaking and listening comprehension, through exhaustive oral practice and the acquisition of key phonetic rules, and by working on pitch, rhythm, linkage and sentence stress and intonation.
	4-8	Business English	These are preparatory courses for international business executives, professionals, and business administration students and prospect students who are or will be conducting business in the global market. Emphasis is made on the lexicon of business, communications techniques, strategies and skills needed to succeed in business.
	6-8	TOEFL Preparation	Aims at preparing international student who need to take the TOEFL Test, which many US colleges and universities mandate. The program has two main objectives, the first part will provide a comprehensive review of areas such as, grammar structures, listening and reading comprehension, with an emphasis in speaking and essay writing for the new TOEFL exam. The second part of the course provides an overview of the exam and test taking strategies, as well as an exhaustive practice of sample TOEFL tests

Measurable Performance Objectives:

- ❖ Use vocabulary words about topics of interest, noun formation, verbs and adjectives + preposition, compound nouns.
- ❖ Orally communicate using grammar structures such as Present Tenses, Past Tenses, Future forms, Perfect Tenses, Modals, Conditionals, Reported Speech, and Passive Voice.
- ❖ Ask and answer tag questions and indirect questions.
- ❖ Identify defining and non-defining relative clauses.
- ❖ Write a simple letter and a short story using some of the grammar structures.
- ❖ Practice Reported Speech making all the necessary tense changes.
- ❖ Construct simple sentences (subject, verb and complete thought).
- ❖ Answer simple questions asked at a relatively faster speed and ask for repetition if necessary.
- ❖ Produce speech with a level of pronunciation that can be understood by native English speakers paying special attention to word and sentence stress.
