A. HUGH ADAMS CENTRAL CAMPUS

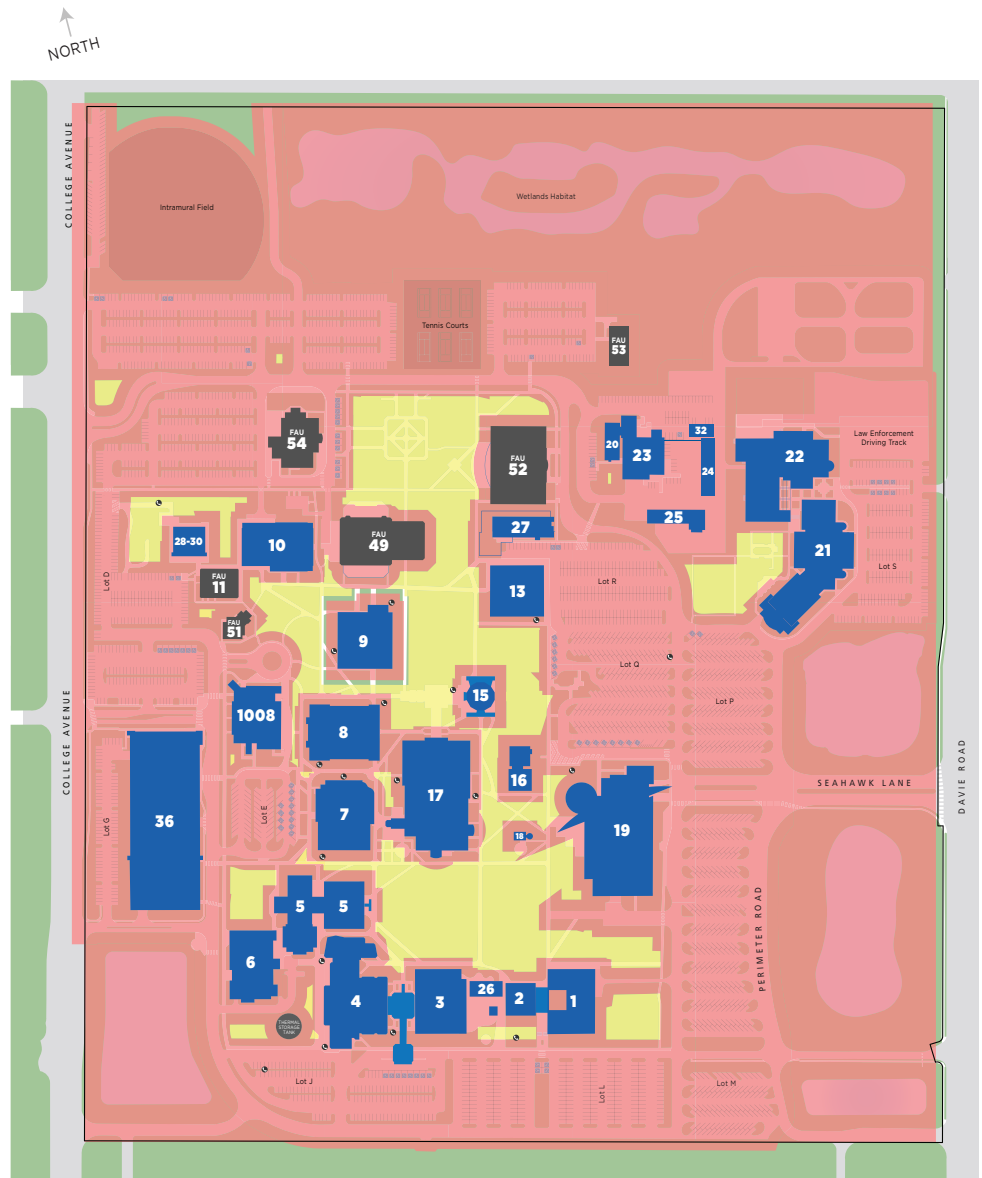

The campuses of Broward College consist of indoor areas, restricted outdoor areas, and unrestricted outdoor areas.

Unrestricted outdoor areas of any Broward College campus, such as grassy areas, walkways, or other similar common areas, may be used while the campus is open without prior permission. These areas are highlighted below (see color key for reference). Use of these areas, however, are subject to the following regulations:

- Activities that are unlawful, cause disruption, infringe upon the rights of others, or are unauthorized commercial speech or activity are expressly prohibited.
- No activity in an unrestricted outdoor area shall occur within 35 feet of an indoor area or a restricted outdoor area.
- Unrestricted outdoor areas shall not be used prior to 6 a.m. or after 10 p.m.
- Expressive activities are prohibited by the College when closed by the President or designee for reasons including but not limited to health, safety, or emergencies.
