ARTICLE I: STUDENT CONDUCT REVIEW PROCEDURES

1. Any member of the Broward College (“College”) community may file a complaint against any student or student organization for misconduct. Students are encouraged to submit complaints in writing, directed to the dean of students assigned to the campus where the violation was allegedly committed. Complaints should be submitted within 5 business days after the alleged incident. Complaints that are not in writing and/or submitted after the preferred timeline will also be considered and investigated as needed. Both the complainant and the referred student will receive a written copy of the Student Code of Conduct and other College policies and procedures applicable to the alleged violation. This complaint procedure serves as the general process followed in most situations to adjudicate and sanction student conduct. In cases where reasonable deviations to these procedures occur, such deviations will not invalidate the process or outcomes.
  - a. Faculty-Imposed Penalties for Academic Dishonesty: Breaches of the College’s policies pertaining to academic dishonesty may result in academic penalties imposed by the instructor. Appeals relating to grades imposed that are associated with allegations of academic dishonesty may be appealed in accordance with College Policy and Procedure 6Hx2-4.19. Additionally, serious allegations of academic dishonesty may be referred to the dean of students of the campus/center for disciplinary action in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct.
  - b. Student – Employee Violations: Students who are also employees of the College, who are found to have violated the Student Code of Conduct, may also be subject to disciplinary action as employees up to and including termination of their employment from the College. Any such instances will be investigated by the Executive Director of Talent and Culture or their designee. Additionally, employees of the College who are also students, and who are subject to disciplinary action in their role as employees, may also be subject to disciplinary action through the Student Code of Conduct.
2. When the dean of students becomes aware of the complaint, she/he may do one or more of the following:
  - a. Immediate Sanction: If a student or student organization poses a threat to any person, is unruly, disruptive, uncontrollable, damages or threatens to damage any property, or some other serious condition exists, the dean of students, with the approval of the College Ombudsperson or Vice Provost for Student Services, may immediately suspend the student or organization from class(es) or other activities at the College. If there is an immediate threat to campus or classroom environment, this suspension may occur prior to due process being extended to the student or student organization. If an immediate sanction is imposed, reasonable attempts should be made to accelerate the formal disciplinary process.
  - b. Support for Complainant: The College will take immediate interim steps to protect the complainant and other impacted members of the College community pending the final outcome of the investigation and the imposition of sanctions. Interim measures are available to address safety as well as any hostile educational environment resulting from the alleged misconduct. These measures include, but are not limited to, changing an employee’s or student’s work schedule, altering the complainant’s or referred student’s course schedule or campus, allowing the withdrawal or retake of classes without penalty, academic support such as tutoring, student services support such as assistance with financial aid issues, visa and immigration assistance, and the issuance of no-contact orders, assisting the student in notifying law-enforcement, recommending appropriate community support, recommending options for counseling, and assisting the student with initiating a College complaint and investigation regarding the allegation in accordance with applicable College policies. Interim measures are temporary and may be removed, enhanced, or otherwise altered upon final determination of the issue. Support given to the complainant prior to the conclusion of due process afforded by this procedure, does not presume the guilt of the accused student and the College will take great care to not impose an undue burden on an accused student who has not yet been in violation of the Code of Conduct.

- c. Trespass: In accordance with College Policy 6Hx2-2.02 – At the direction of the dean of students, students may be escorted off College property and/or issued a law enforcement executed notice of trespass if their continued presence is considered a threat to the safety of persons or property. The dean of students, with the approval of the College Ombudsperson or Vice Provost for Student Services, may exercise their authority to issue a notice of trespass, prior to the completion of due process,
- d. Review by dean of students or designee: Upon receiving a complaint, an initial inquiry will be conducted consisting of reviewing the complaint and other available information to determine if an investigation is warranted. If an investigation is initiated, appropriate steps will be taken to ensure that the investigation is adequate, reliable, and impartial, and includes the opportunity for all parties to present witnesses and evidence. If the violation may result in a Level 2 Sanction (Suspension or Expulsion), the dean of students shall assign the investigation to the District Director of Student Conduct & Integrity or other designee. Persons called to present information as part of an investigation will be notified of the allegations and possible violations of the Student Code of Conduct and will receive a copy of the Student Code of Conduct Policy and Procedure. At the conclusion of the investigation, an investigative report will be prepared outlining: 1) a description of the specific behavior that occurred that allegedly violated the Code of Conduct; 2) the specific sections of the Code of Conduct that the student or student organization is alleged to have violated; 3) a summary of all statements, interviews, evidence, etc.; 4) a finding as to whether it is more likely than not (preponderance of the evidence standard) that the student or student organization violated the Code of Conduct; 5) sanctions imposed or recommended (depending on jurisdiction); and 6) if applicable, steps taken to stop the offending conduct, prevent recurrence, and mitigate risks to the community. During the investigation, the complainant and the referred student or student organization have the privilege of being assisted, at their own expense, by one adviser of their own choice. The adviser may be an attorney. The complainant and/or the referred student are responsible for presenting their own case. Advisors are not permitted to speak or to participate directly or indirectly in any part of the investigation. Either the complainant or the referred student may question the impartiality of the review with the Campus President, and up through the chain of command as needed depending on the nature of the concern about impartiality. The College will preserve all evidence that may be of value in conducting an investigation and determining culpability and sanctions imposed upon the referred students, and will share such evidence with appropriate law enforcement entities as required by law. Students charged with a violation of the Code of Conduct will receive a copy of the investigative report.

- e. Authority of Student Dean and Student Conduct Committee: Other than in instances where a possible outcome of a disciplinary hearing is suspension or expulsion, the dean of students will review evidence, meet with the student or student organization, meet with witnesses, and impose sanctions as outlined in Article III of this procedure within 15 business days after receiving the complaint. A review by the dean of students may occur prior to sanctions being imposed or after sanctions are imposed and/or a notice of trespass is issued in accordance with items I.2.a, b, & c above.
  - f. Review by Student Conduct Committee: In cases involving possible suspension or expulsion, the matter will be heard by the Student Conduct Committee in accordance with the guidelines set forth in Article II of this procedure. In cases where the matter is referred to the Student Conduct Committee, the dean of students or designees will still conduct the inquiry and or investigation described above.
  - g. Disruptive Students: In instances where student behavior manifests symptoms of possible psychological/psychiatric issues, the dean of students, with the approval of the College Ombudsperson or Vice Provost for Student Services may require that a student complete a psychiatric and/or psychological evaluation based on the student's behavior. The results of the psychiatric and/or or psychological evaluation will assist the College in determining the student's ability to continue participation in educational programming at the College in accordance with the provisions of this procedure. Students deemed to pose an immediate threat to themselves or others will be subject to immediate sanction and/or may be trespassed from all College locations in accordance with item A and B above pending the outcome of full due process rights afforded by this procedure.
3. Students are responsible for their conduct. Students may not invoke their official or informal complaint or grievances against other persons or departments as part of their defense against allegations of having violated the Student Code of Conduct. Even if legitimate, a grievance against a member of the college community is not sufficient grounds, nor a defense for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.
  4. Complaints of Sexual Harassment/Misconduct (as defined by Policy 6Hx2-5.39) shall be addressed pursuant to the procedure provided for by Policy 6Hx2-5.39.

Therefore, the College will impose significantly increased sanctions against perpetrators who commit one or more of the offenses in this Policy, if the College determines that the perpetrators’ actions were motivated by the actual or perceived affiliation of the victim with a particular social group, race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity, national origin, disability, age, marital status, and/or gender identity. Additionally, the College will support the criminal prosecution of students who engage in bias-motivated violations of this Code in accordance with section 775.085, Florida Statutes, 18 U.S.C. §§ 245 and 249, and other applicable laws.

ARTICLE IV: APPEALS

- 1. A referred student, student organization, or complainant may appeal to the College Ombudsperson or Vice Provost for Student Services the sanctions imposed by the dean of students. - 3. In considering the appeal, the College Ombudsperson or Vice Provost for Student Services will limit their review to a determination of whether the student or student organization received a fair hearing in accordance with established policies and procedures.     - c. The finding and/or the sanction was fundamentally unfair or inappropriate.
  4. The College Ombudsperson or Vice Provost for Student Services will generally limit their review to the written appeal and the record of the hearing. In exceptional circumstances, the College Ombudsperson or Vice Provost for Student Services may, at their discretion, meet with student(s) directly to review evidence, meet with witnesses and the accused student(s) or student organization.
  5. After considering the appeal, the College Ombudsperson or Vice Provost for Student Services may:

In instances where an appeal is submitted, and the matter is adjudicated by the College Ombudsperson or Vice Provost for Student Services, he/she will notify appropriate College personnel of the decision. Both the complainant and referred student or student organization will receive simultaneous written notice of the outcome of the complaint including the rationale for the decision. Communication indicating the outcome of a disciplinary proceeding shall include a summary of the alleged behavior, the specific parts of the Code of Conduct allegedly violated, a finding as to whether or not the student or student organization was found to have violated the Code of Conduct including the rationale for the decision, the sanctions imposed, and opportunities for appeal.
